Celebrating the Spring Equinox: Bringing your Creations into the World

Saturday, March 22, 2008
6:30 to 8:00 pm

The spring equinox invites us to bring forth our inspiration and passion, allowing them to shine and evolve after the long cold repose of winter.

Spring is the beginning of an alchemical process that brings many opportunities to initiate new projects and accelerate our own progress on all levels of existence. It is also a powerful time to let go of things that no longer serve us.

Our gathering will combine ceremony and an awareness of the sacred traditions arising from nature's rhythms and forces.

Bring a candle, an object that represents the old and one symbolizing your new creations.
